- Industrial Engineering
- Metallurgical Engineering
- Mining Engineering
- Geology

b. B Tech at University of Johannesburg in:

- Mining
- Mining Surveying

What the bursary offer?

- The comprehensive bursary will cover tuition fees and allowances for books, residence and meals.
- Practical work for bursary holders as prescribed by the institution of study.
- Professional-in-Training programme after completion of studies.
- Exciting career prospects.

What do you need to qualify?

- B Eng/Bsc Degree courses: A minimum level 6 for Maths and Science, English minimum Level 5.
- B Tech courses: A minimum level 5 for Maths, Science and English.

Note

- Current Gr 12 learners will be evaluated on their Gr 11 final results.
- Recently matriculated applicants will be evaluated based on Gr 12 final results.
- Applicants should apply for one discipline only.
- Applicants should be in compliance with the minimum entry requirements as prescribed by the relevant universities.
- Bursary opportunities are only available to South African citizens.
- Nominated applicants will need to go through a selection process (Including psychometric assessment and medical examination).
- Bursars should be willing to be placed at any of the operations of Exxaro on completion of studies.

Exxaro creates more opportunities with the Bsc 4 year programme or B Engage programme

If you've recently passed or are busy with your Gr 12 and you're from an historically disadvantaged background, then Exxaro can offer you the Bsc 4 year programme or B Engage programme.

What is the Exxaro Bsc 4 year programme or B Engage programme?

The programmes are hosted by the University of Pretoria from January to November each year. The development programme can help to prepare the student to compete on merit for a bursary. Thus, after successful completion of the first year of this programme, candidates may be considered for an Exxaro Bursary to study a degree course.

Exxaro covers:

This all inclusive sponsorship for one year (1) covers tuition, book, accommodation and meal fees and contributes towards miscellaneous expenses.

What do you need to apply for the Exxaro Bsc 4 year programme or B Engage programme?

The same general requirements as for bursaries, but with the exception of:

- Gr 12 Maths , Science and English (minimum Level 5).
- University Endorsement.
